

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE ELEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA
CIRCUIT CIVIL DIVISION

CATHERINA PARETO and
KARLA ARGUELLO, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

Case No.: 2014-1661-CA-01

HARVEY RUVIN, as Clerk of the Courts of Miami-Dade County, Florida,
in his official capacity,

Defendant.

STATE OF FLORIDA'S MOTION TO INTERVENE

The State of Florida, through Attorney General Pamela Jo Bondi, pursuant to Florida Civil Rule 1.230 and section 16.01, Florida Statutes, moves to intervene. The Attorney General's office has been actively monitoring this case and other similar actions since their filing, and it has been defending similar challenges pending in federal court in the Northern District of Florida. Now, with the motion to abate these proceedings no longer pending, with a motion for summary judgment pending, and with the Defendant Clerk of Courts having withdrawn its opposition to the summary judgment motion, the Attorney General seeks to intervene on behalf of the State and to defend the State's laws.

1. The Attorney General is charged under section 16.01, Florida Statutes, to "appear in and attend to, in behalf of the state, all suits ... in which the state may be a party, or in anywise interested." This case involves a challenge to certain of the State's statutory and constitutional provisions, so the State has an interest in the lawsuit. See State ex rel. Shevin v. Kerwin, 279 So. 2d 836, 837-38 (Fla. 1973) ("It cannot be doubted that the constitutional integrity of the laws of Florida is a matter in which the State has great interest, or that the State is a proper, but not necessary, party to any determination of the constitutionality of any state statute.”).

2. The Attorney General has the authority to intervene in matters like this one. See, e.g., State ex rel. Boyles v. Fla. Parole & Prob. Comm’n, 436 So. 2d 207, 210 (Fla. 1st DCA 1983); see also Ervin v. Collins, 85 So. 2d 852, 854 (Fla. 1956).

3. The State of Florida’s intervention will not prejudice the existing parties.

WHEREFORE, the Attorney General asks that the Court allow the State of Florida to intervene in this action.

Respectfully submitted,

PAMELA JO BONDI
ATTORNEY GENERAL
